IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CRIMINAL APPLICATION NO. 826 OF 2006

Sadik Mohammad Shaikh ...Applicant.

V/s

The State of Maharashtra ... Respondent.

Mr. Jayesh B. Kotecha for the applicant.

Ms. M.M. Deshmukh, APP for the State.

CORAM: V.M. KANADE, J.

DATE: 1st March, 2006

P.C:

1. Heard the learned Counsel for the applicant and the learned APP for the State.

2. This is an application for extention of temporary bail granted by the trial court. The application for temporary bail was preferred by the applicant on the medical grounds. The applicant, thereafter, was treated by doctor. Doctor was examined by the Court and he has stated that the applicant was discharged on 8/2/2006 and he was advised not to do heavy work for three months and take rest. He has given an opinion that general condition of the patient was alright when he was discharged. In view of this evidence given by the doctor who has treated the applicant, in my view, it is not necessary to extend the bail for a period of three months. However, considering the fact that the applicant has been operated for hernia and kidney stone, the period is extended by three weeks. Thereafter, the applicant shall surrender after expiry of three weeks from today. The jail authorities, however, are directed not to give any work to the applicant for a period of three months from the date of surrender. The applicant may be given medicines as prescribed by his doctor.

3. Application is disposed of in the above terms.

V.M. KANADE, J.
